

I think the age 60 rule is long overdue a change. With the population living longer and living healthier, to be unable to fly past 60 because of age alone is ridiculous.